1. Moringa Leaf Powder/Moringa Tea/Moringa Capsules Benefits

A general multi-purpose herb used for detoxifying the system, it promotes a general feeling of well-being, increased vitality, and energy, alleviating the symptoms of multitudinous complaints and illnesses.

How it works

Contains 92 different nutrients, these include but are not limited to:

- Zinc (great for the growth of sperm and muscle synthesis)
- Calcium (important for bone and teeth development)
- Protein (important for muscle synthesis)
- Potassium (great for vitality)
- Iron (very important for the transport of oxygen in the body)
- Phytosterol (decreases the amount of cholesterol the body takes in)
- Vitamins A-E

Suggested Method of Consumption

Moringa Leaf powder capsules

Adults: Take two (2) to four (4) capsules daily. For best results take before or with meals.

Moringa Tea

Brew 1 teabag in 1 cup of clean hot (not boiling) water for 2-5 minutes. May add raw honey to make it sweeter and enjoy it hot or as iced tea.

2. Moringa Leaf and Fulvic Acid Capsules Benefits

These have all the benefits of moringa leaf capsules with greatly improved results. Fulvic acid increases the absorption of the moringa, and any food eaten with it. Fulvic acid is known as “nature's best electrolyte”, it helps healing of joint pain and mobility issues due to strains and rheumatism as well as attaches to and helps remove toxins from the body.

How it works

- Most plants and grains contain phytates (or phytic acid). These are naturally occurring organic compounds which can reduce the uptake of minerals by up to 80%.
- The use of Fulvic acid powder greatly assists with the body's ability in increasing the amount of minerals absorbed; a phenomenon known as chelation.
- Furthermore, this chelating process in addition to the effects of Vitamin A, C, E in moringa may aid in the removal toxins in the body through the scavenging of potentially cancerous causing free ions.

Suggested Method Of Consumption

Adults: Take two (2) to four (4) capsule daily. For best results take before or with meals.

3. Moringa Seed Powder Capsules Benefits

A form of Moringa that has the highest protein, healthy fats and vitamin E content than any other part of the plant. Studies show that it assists with hormonal issues like menopause and erectile dysfunction in men. Moringa seed capsules are taken for their hormonal effects, for men they increase natural testosterone production and for women it is used to help fix hormone imbalances helping regulate menstruation. For both sexes the moringa seed improves libido.

How it works

- Vitamin E (the strongest antioxidant) – scavenges for & rids the body of free radicals (unstable oxygen containing molecules in the body that cause damage to cells)
- Fats – are important as they help the body absorb vitamins such as vitamins A, D and K; fats also contain twice as much energy as carbohydrates or proteins due to the breakdown of more than one subunit in fats (fatty acids and glycerol).
- Protein – the breakdown of certain amino acids in Moringa seeds may aid sexual desire as well as sleep through the release of serotonin, dopamine and melatonin respectively.

Suggested Method Of Consumption

Adults: Take two (2) to four (4) capsule daily. For best results take before or with meals.

4. New Body – Moringa (Concentrate) (500ml) Benefits

New body has 4 main benefits, it is an immune booster, it increases energy, it can help with weight loss and hormonal regulation. The product is targeted at women but can be consumed by both sexes.

It is probably unsurpassed in South Africa by either as an immune boosting drink, which doubles as a topflight energy boosting drink. Critically, it contains no sugar or caffeine but still delivers a butt kick as good if not better than anything on the market today.

Not only will New Body revitalize and aid with weight loss it may also assist in the reduction of pain, maintain healthy blood pressure levels and decrease bad cholesterol levels.

How it works

Besides the aforementioned moringa and fulvic acid, New body has a large amount of natural herbs that have different properties, for instance:

- Bamboo shoots – Addition of Potassium through this herb may assist in maintaining blood pressure.
- Indian ginseng –. Improves serotonin and dopamine levels. Serotonin is a hormone that affects mood, digestion, learning, memory and is often linked to improved sexual desire. New body may decrease depression levels through an increase in blood serotonin. Dopamine is a chemical that affects the movement of muscles and is important as it delivers key messages to the brain promoting sexual desire.
- Guduchi – Is particularly known for getting rid of toxins, more specifically as it helps detoxify the liver.

Suggested Method of consumption

Shake well before use.

Dilute 2 caps of New body in 250ml of clean water (or juice).

Once a day after breakfast

5. Yoni Steaming Therapy Benefits

A feminine hygiene product with a myriad of properties and these include, but are not limited to, pain relief, anti-oxidation, decreasing microbial count and decreasing the amount of harmful fungal properties. The formulation utilized to produce this product is scientifically backed to decrease menstrual cramps and reduce heavy menstrual flow; this, according to women, helps ease discomfort during the entire period.

How it works

- The herbs are packed in 20g single use bags in order to maximize each herb's properties.
- The herbs can then be placed in a steel or ceramic container; boiled water should then be poured.
- The woman then squats in a manner that positions her vagina above the bowl containing the herbs. ● The chemicals in the herbs are disseminated to the vagina through the steam.

Suggested method of use

See "How it works"

6. Moringa & Fulvic Bentonite Facial Mask Benefits

The moringa and fulvic acid mask may assist with firming of the skin, evening the complexion of the skin, skin moisturization and skin restoration.

How it works

- The Moringa and Fulvic acid facial mask heals and regenerates skin tissue, drawing out toxins and treating acne through the undisputed potent nutrients found in these organic substances.
- Through the medium of the bentonite mask passed on from past and ancient cultures, our mask aims to unclog and shrink pores for the skin to breath, reducing the appearance of blackheads and scars.
- The Moringa and Fulvic bentonite mask naturally works to exfoliate the skin helping to even out tone and liven your skin.

Suggested method of use

Thoroughly mix 1 spoon of facial powder with a 1 spoon of water until a paste forms.

- Apply the mask with either, Your fingers or Cosmetic sponge or Cotton ball
- Leave the facial mask for about 20 minutes until the mask begins to dry and starts to crack.
- Rinse and scrub off using water.

7. Moringa Seed Oil Benefits

A person may experience improvements in skin complexion as well as the reduction of dark spots and darkened patches. Swelling and bruising may potentially subside and the skin may feel firmer and tighter through the use of this oil. In addition to this, the firmer and tighter skin may result in the decrease of cellulite. Individuals may also experience a decrease in sunburn when exposed to the UV rays associated with the sun.

How it works

- The presence of vitamin A, C and E have proven to be fantastic in improving skin complexion as these vitamins are essential in decreasing toxins in the skin
- Oleic acid present in the seed oil may be beneficial in process of moisturizing the skin, keeping the skin soft and smooth
- Moringa acts as an anti-inflammatory, by suppressing molecules (enzymes) that are directly involved in the cause of inflammation.
- Stimulation of collagen keeps the skin firm and well-toned.

Suggested Method Of Use

Gently massage on to the face or body and wipe off excess with a paper towel

8. Moringa Youth Enhancing Cream Benefits

The youth enhancing cream may aid in skin restoration, furthermore, a more even skin tone can be observed due to the presence of various vitamins found in the moringa, shea butter, macadamia nut, wheat germ oil and geranium oil. Inflammation (redness and bruises) on the skin may also begin to subside, this made possible through derivatives found in moringa, Geranium oil, Ylang Ylang, frankincense, wheat germ oil and shea butter.

How it works

- Skin restoration is potentially made possible through vitamin c which helps boost hyaluronic acid, an organic acid necessary in the production of collagen.
- Antioxidants in moringa, shea butter, macadamia nut, wheat germ oil and geranium oil as well as Vitamin B3 all work towards riding the skin of harmful toxins.
- Derivatives in moringa, Geranium oil, Ylang Ylang, frankincense, wheat germ oil and shea butter act as anti-inflammatories, by suppressing molecules (enzymes) that that are directly involved in the cause of inflammation.

Suggested method of use

Wash your hands and face before using the moringa anti-ageing cream. May apply 1-2 times daily

9. Slimming Tea Benefits

A well-rounded blend of herbs that focuses on suppressing appetite, stimulating digestion, improving metabolism and burning fat. In addition to the above-mentioned attributes, this elegant teabag mix is has also shown tremendous effects as a detox tea as it aids in the removal of toxins, essentially aiding in the reduction of bloating.

How it works

- The presence of green tea not only aids in the increase of the body's metabolism but is also an excellent fat burning herb as it stimulates fat breakdown, through the presence of caffeine which raises adrenaline molecules essential in the release of fatty acids.
- The presence of organic acids (particularly chlorogenic acids) in the tea may aid in the decrease of cholesterol and weight loss as these acids prevent the creation of fat molecules.
- The presence of polyphenols (organic molecules that aid in metabolism, weight and cell division) in lemon verbena, hibiscus and moringa may aid in decreasing bloating and improving digestion.

Suggested method of consumption

Bring water to a boil and allow to cool slightly. To a bottle containing a teabag of the slimming tea, add 500ml to 1L of the boiled water. Drink over the course of the day.

10. Slimming Capsules Benefits

An all-in-one capsule that combines both, the properties of fat burning and suppressing appetite. Suppressing appetite is an important aspect of weight loss however and an underrated mechanism of this process is the ability the suppression has in triggering fat burning within the body, and this can be credited to Cayenne pepper and ginger extract. An important thing of note is that this product can also be used to detox, as a diuretic and as an anti-inflammatory (bloating) as well

How it works

- Apart from weight loss associated with the appetite suppressing capabilities of some ingredients within the capsule, individuals may notice a decrease in fat deposits (adipose tissue) and this can be credited to Green tea extract, guarana extract and apple cider vinegar extract as these ingredients are all capable of fat metabolism.
- Green tea extract is especially useful in maintaining fat metabolism when acclimatization of the product has taken place (especially in those individuals that love a caffeinated beverage as a pre-workout)
- In addition to this, the green tea extract (as well as cayenne pepper powder) is also responsible for the thermogenic effect the capsule has on the body.
- Guarana extract also contributes one very interesting trait; it can increase sugar levels at rest. This is important in weight loss as it allows your body to process sugar stores quickly, giving the body the opportunity to use fat stores as energy quicker...essentially speeding up the fat burning process.

Suggested method of consumption

Take 1 or 2 capsules before or with breakfast. For optimum results, consume on an empty stomach to allow for the best possible absorption

11. Women's Libido Capsules Benefits

A powerful hormone booster whose sole purpose is to function to improve everything related to sexual function in non-stimulated women. Main benefits include improving the chemicals associated with arousal, sexual desire and orgasms in women. Furthermore, this product looks to improve blood flow to sexual organs through the production of Nitric oxide. Another interesting point of note is that this product improves ovulation in women.

How it works

- All ingredients in this product are important stimulators of dopamine, the chemical associated with sexual desire.
- The increase in luteinizing hormone in women may help increase the chances of ovulation and in turn, fertility.

- The inhibition of certain enzymes by moringa seed, maca and panax ginseng may aid in vasodilation of blood vessels, allowing better blood flow to sexual organs.
- Nitric oxide helps relax muscles in sexual organs, the increase of nitric oxide by Tribulus, maca and panax ginseng aid in the relaxation and subsequent blood flow to said sex organs.
- A product comprised completely of natural ingredients

Suggested Method of consumption

Take 1 or 2 capsules before or with breakfast.
